

İDUMEA

Canto tradicional

Soprano

And am I born to land of dee - pest
as from earth I
by the trum pet

Alto

And am I born to
land of dee - pest
as from earth I
by the trum - pet

Tenor

And am I born to land of from dee - pest
as from earth I
by the trum - pet

S

die? To lay this bo - dy down! And shade, un - pierced by hu - man thought the go, what will be come of me? E - sound, I from my grave shall rise; And

A

die? To lay this bo - dy down! And shade, un - pierced by hu - man thought the go, what will be come of me? E - sound, I from my grave shall rise; And

T

die? To lay this bo - dy down! And shade, un - pierced by hu - man thought the go, what will be come of me? E - sound, I from my grave shall rise; And

Idumea

2

7

S

must be tremb - ling spi - rit fly in - drea - ry re - gions of the dead, where ter - nal hap - pi - ness or woe, must see the Judge with glo - ry crowned, and

A

must be tremb - ling spi - rit fly in - drea - ry re - gions of the dead, where
 ter - nal hap - pi - ness or woe, must
 see the Judge with glo - ry crowned, and

T

8

must be tremb - ling spi - rit fly in - drea - ry re - gions of the dead, where
 ter - nal hap - pi - ness or woe, must
 see the Judge with glo - ry crowned, and 11

S

to a world un - know? A all things are for got. Soon then my por - tion be! Waked see the flam - ing skies!

A

to a world un - know? A all things are for got. Soon then my por - tion be! Waked see the flam - ing skies!

T

8

to a world un - know? A all things are for got. Soon then my por - tion be! Waked see the flam - ing skies!

Fine